LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(18.) To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any Company, society, partnership, or person formed for all or any of the purposes within the objects of this Company, and to conduct, carry on, or liquidate and wind up any such business, and pay for the same, in whole or in part, by the issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company:

(19.) To let or lease or hire the whole or any part of the real and personal property of the Company on such terms as may be determined by it:

(20.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patent rights, licences, concessions, and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, transfer, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the rights or information so acquired:

(21.) To enter into any arrangement with any Provincial, municipal, civic, or local authorities that may seem conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangement, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(22.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(23.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, debenture stock (perpetual or terminable), bonds, mortgages, or any other securities, founded, based, or charged upon all or any of the property and rights of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without any such security, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise, as the Company shall think fit:

(25.) To advance and lend money upon such security as may be thought proper, or without taking any security therefor:

(26.) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(27.) To acquire by subscription, purchase, or otherwise, and to accept and take, hold, or sell, shares or stock in any company, society, or undertaking the objects of which shall, either in whole or in part, be similar to those of this Company, or such as may be likely to promote or advance the interests of this Company:

(28.) To provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company, or formerly engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, and families of such persons, by grants of money, pensions, insurance or other payments, and by providing or subscribing towards places of instruction and recreation, and hospitals, dispensaries, medical and other attendance, and other assistance as the Company shall think fit, and to form, subscribe to, or otherwise aid benevolent, religious, scientific, national, or other institutions or objects which shall have any moral or other claims to support or aid by the Company by reason of the locality of its operation or otherwise:

(29.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company, and any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(30.) To establish, promote, or otherwise assist any company or companies for the purpose of furthering any of the objects of this Company:

(31.) To pay the expenses of and preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company:

(32.) To sell, dispose of, or transfer the business, property, assets, and undertakings of the Company, or any part thereof, for any consideration which the Company may deem fit to accept:

(33.) To accept stock or shares in, or the bonds, mortgages, debentures, or other securities of, any other company in payment or part payment for any services rendered or for any sale made to or debt owing from any such company:

(34.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, on such terms and in such manner as the regulations of the Company may from time to time provide, any shares in the Company's capital, subject to the provisions of the "Companies' Ordinance" and any amendments thereto:

(35.) To distribute in specie or otherwise as may be resolved any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(36.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized, either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors or agents:

(37.) Generally to carry on any other business, whether organized or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause, the meaning of any of the objects of the Company shall not be restricted by reference to any other subject or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company.
